

RYVU REFUGEE YOUTH VOLUNTEERING UGANDA

COMMUNITY CENTER

Our life depend in Something
Can bring Joyful

Aim: Understand whether volunteering by refugee youth in Uganda helps their skills acquisition and employability and reduces the inequalities they experience

Approach: collaborative, interdisciplinary, participatory, practical impact focused

Fieldwork sites: Kampala, Nakivale, Bidibidi and Rwamwanja Refugee Settlements

Follow updates on the project at:

www.ryvu.org

 @RYVUganda

RESEARCH PERMISSIONS

- MUREC - Mildmay Uganda Research Ethic Committee, full ethical permission granted, ref 0103-2020
- UNCST - Ugandan National Council of Science and Technology, full ethical permission granted, ref SS447ES
- OPM - Office of the Prime Minister, permission granted to access the refugee settlements, ref OPM/R/107
- NUN - Northumbria University Newcastle, ethical permission granted
- Covid-19 Risk Assessments for the fieldwork have been approved by MUREC, UNCST and NUN

PROJECT TEAM

Professor Matt Baillie Smith, Northumbria University
 Dr. Owen Boyle, Northumbria University
 Professor Peter Kanyandago, Uganda Martyrs University
 Dr. Cuthbert Tukundane, Uganda Martyrs University
 Dr. Frank Ahimbisibwe, Mbarara University of Science and Technology
 Dr. Sarah Mills, Loughborough University
 Dr. Moses Okech, Uganda Martyrs University
 Dr. Robert Turyamureeba, Mbarara University of Science and Technology

Covid-19 Precautions for Research Staff

- ✓ 3-layered, filtered masks
- ✓ Hand sanitizers and soap
- ✓ Regular temperature checks
- ✓ WHO approved disinfectants
- ✓ Separate transportation
- ✓ Maintenance of social distancing
- ✓ Contact details for tracing
- ✓ Adherence to strict government Covid-19 Guidelines at all times

PARTNER INSTITUTIONS

Northumbria University
NEWCASTLE

Loughborough University

Funded by the Economics and Social Research Council (ESRC) Global Challenges Research Fund (GCRF), ES/S005439/1

